A brief bio as of 08/06/2024.

DOB: 10/24/1961

Home state: TEXAS

Upbringing: Military BRAT, single-parent home

Married: 43 years. I met my future wife on a blind date and married her 10 months later.

Family: 3 adult children, 3 grandchildren

Education:

- Elementary: military bases around the U.S. and Okinawa
- High School: TEXAS
- University of North Carolina at Charlotte: BS in Criminal Justice and Mathematics for Secondary Ed.
- Wake Forest University, Bowman Gray School of Medicine: N.C. Athletic Trainer Medical License
- NOVA Southeastern University: MS in Curriculum and Instruction
- University of South Carolina: Doctorate in Education, Innovation and Design in Curriculum and Instruction

Adult employment: many were worked concurrently.

- Law Enforcement ... 5 years, highest rank Sergeant responsible for 14 patrol officers
- Mathematics and Science teacher (middle and high school) ... 38 years
- Head Athletic Trainer ... 21 years, 40+ teams per year, staff of 3,
- Medical Services Director ... 26 years, 50+ annual events, staff of 120, over 25,000 athletes annually
- Firefighter/Medic/Swiftwater Rescue Technician ... 8 years
- Raft guide, 3 years, U.S. National Whitewater Center
- Adjunct professor for College of Education, University of South Carolina, 1 semester (so far)

Fun facts:

- The Smithsonian's Museum of Natural History was one of my weekend 'playgrounds' in my youth.
- My first German Shepherd Dog and introduction to dog training and maintenance was a retired U.S. Air Force sentry dog in 1974.
- I have been struck by vehicles 4 times, once as a child and three times while directing traffic in law enforcement.
- As a medic, I assisted mothers in birthing 4 babies. One was in a hotel room, two were in the back seat of their car, and one was in the back of my ambulance.
- I have sat in the office of the Vice President of the United States, in his seat, with my feet upon his desk. (He was out of the office that day ... shhh!)

Thank you for considering how my education, expertise in teaching, diverse life experiences in leadership positions in various professions, and my attached USCA competitor summary sheet have prepared me to be an effective candidate for this role as Director At Large within USCA.

Sincerely,

Stanley W. Craddock, Ed.D.
